

Emerson is a friendly, people-oriented community.

Welcome to the City of Emerson

The City of Emerson is proud to provide this site as a valuable reference tool for those wishing to find information about our city. With the exciting changes anticipated in Emerson, it is our hope that the site will be an informative tool that will be utilized to assist others in learning more about our city and what is happening. It is also our goal to keep you informed and offer services that meet the needs of our citizens.

Thank you for stopping by our site to browse. We hope you enjoy your visit and welcome you to come to Emerson and experience our hospitality. Please let us know if there are suggestions to improve this website or if you have specific questions for myself, the council or the staff.
